REPORT ON EXISTING TELEVISION LOCAL MARKETING AGREEMENTS

Communications Corporation of America ("CCA"), by its attorneys and pursuant to the Commission's Public Notice, "Commission Seeks Further Information Regarding Television LMA's", 62 Fed. Reg. 33792 (June 23, 1997), hereby respectfully submits its report with regard to existing television local marketing agreements ("LMA's") to which it is a party.

I. Background

1. CCA is a party to two LMA's, which involve stations in Shreveport, Louisiana, and Waco/Killeen, Texas. While CCA is not itself the licensee of stations in either of those markets, it is the ultimate parent company of ComCorp of Texas License Corp., which is the licensee of KMSS-TV, Shreveport, Louisiana, and KWKT(TV), Waco, Texas.

2. CCA entered into Time Brokerage Agreements (LMA's) with White Knight Broadcasting of Shreveport License Corp. ("White Knight - Shreveport"), licensee of KSHV(TV), and White Knight Broadcasting of Killeen License Corp. ("White Knight - Killeen"), licensee of KAKW(TV). While the agreements were executed as of January 11, 1996, they have never actually been put into effect.

3. CCA is also a party to Commercial Inventory Agreements with both White Knight - Shreveport and White Knight - Killeen. These agreements do not, however, involve the provision of any programming to the White Knight stations. Rather, the Commercial Inventory Agreements provide for CCA to sell commercial advertising time for and provide accounting and other office services to KSHV(TV) and KAKW(TV) in return for revenues from the advertising time sold.

4. The LMA's between CCA and White Knight - Shreveport and White Knight - Killeen were entered into to provide a back-up position. At the time that the LMA's were entered into, both KAKW(TV) and KSHV(TV) were essentially start-up operations. Indeed, White Knight - Killeen had just acquired the construction permit for KAKW(TV), and the station did not commence regular broadcast operations until May 31, 1996. Although White Knight - Shreveport acquired a license for KSHV(TV), the station had not yet been on the air for even two years at the time that the LMA was executed. At the time that the LMA's were entered into, White Knight - Killeen and White Knight - Shreveport fully intended to select, contract for, and air its own programming for KAKW(TV) and KSHV(TV), and they have in fact carried out this intention. Nevertheless, in light of the fact that the stations were start-up operations, and in light of possible Commission rule changes which would prohibit future LMA's, White Knight - Killeen and White Knight - Shreveport determined that they would enter into LMA's to provide a fall-back position in the event of future difficulties. White Knight - Killeen and White Knight - Shreveport continue to maintain the agreements with CCA as a fall-back position.
